1. Disney Wish: Newest Ship, Tightest Rules to Add Passenger Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944

The Disney Wish has more staterooms than any other Disney ship – but also more restrictions. To Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on the Wish:

- Most Wish cabins are built for 4 guests max. Only suites hold 5.
- When you Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on the Wish, the system automatically checks lifeboat capacity by deck.
- The Wish has no "guarantee" cabins for last-minute additions.

 Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944 at least 60 days before sailing if you plan to Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on the Wish. Last-minute additions are nearly impossible here.

2. Disney Dream & Fantasy: Best Ships to Add Passenger In Disney Cruise Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944

The Dream-class ships (Dream & Fantasy) are the most flexible for additions. Why? They have more 5-person Family Verandah cabins than any other class. To Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on these ships:

- Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944.
- Ask specifically for "Category 4A or 4B" cabins. These allow you to Add Passenger In Disney Cruise up to 2 extra people.
- The Dream and Fantasy also have more connecting cabins, so you can Add Passenger In Disney Cruise into an adjacent room.

Many agents say these ships are the easiest to Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on, even within 30 days of sailing.

3. Disney Magic & Wonder: Older Ships, Unique Challenges Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944

The classic Magic and Wonder have smaller staterooms overall. However, they have "secret" berths – fold-down beds in unexpected places. To Add Passenger In Disney Cruise on these ships:

- You may need to Add Passenger In Disney Cruise into a cabin with a Pullman bed (ceiling-mounted).
- Some Magic cabins sleep 5 but are not labeled as such online.
- Call 📞 +1⭕833⭕624⭕0944 and ask: "Are there any hidden berths in my cabin category?"

Agents have access to ship-specific deck plans. They can help you Add Passenger In Disney Cruise by reclassifying your cabin.
